

Evaluations: This is about quality and not about New Public Management on speed

The focus is on degree programme quality when AU invites you to an after-work meeting about teaching evaluations. Please mark your calendar for 9 December.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss how teaching evaluations can provide increased value to students, teaching staff and directors of studies who are all important participants in the quality assurance activities for the degree programmes. Through presentations, experience sharing and debate, the after-work meeting will provide inspiration for further discussions of the evaluation practice in the many different academic environments at AU. There will be time for questions and input during the meeting.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

All interested AU staff and students are welcome to attend the meeting which is primarily intended for department heads/heads of school, directors of studies, teaching staff and interested students. If you want to attend the meeting, please see the time and venue below.

Time and venue: The meeting will be held on 9 December at 14:30-16:30 in the Merete Barker Lecture Theatre, Lakeside Lecture Theatres..

PROGRAMME FOR THE DAY

14.30-14.40 Welcom by Niels Lehmann,
Vice-dean for Education at Arts

14.40-15.00 Challenges and dilemmas in connection with teaching evaluations
Presentation of the results from the Danish Evaluation Institute's (EVA's) survey across 12 degree programmes
at five institutions, by Tue Vinther-Jørgensen, EVA

15.00-15.15 Examples of AU initiatives to help increase the outcome of the evaluations.
By Lone Koefoed Hansen, Department of Digital Design and Information Studies,
AU

15.15-15.30 Coffee

15.30-15.45 Presentation by Berit Eika,
Pro-rector for Education

15:45-16:30 Panel debate

Participants:

- Berit Eika, Pro-rector
- Lone Koefoed Hansen, Associate Professor
- Tue Vinther-Jørgensen, EVA
- Berit Lassenes, Centre for Teaching and Learning
- Mads Kristian Warming, biology student (appointed by student council)
- Moderator: Niels Lehmann, Vice-dean for Education at Arts