

KICK OFF WORKSHOP for AU NETWORK OF PUBLIC MENTAL CHILD HEALTH

December 12th 2014

IN AIAS AUDITORIUM, HØGH GULDBERGSGADE 6B, 8000 AARHUS C

Program

9.00 - 9.15 WELCOME

- Søren Kjærgaard, Head of Department of Public Health, AU

9.15 - 10.30 UNDERSTANDING

- Why are more children diagnosed with ADHD and ASD?
Erik Parner, Professor, Department of Biostatistics, AU
- Exploring the concept of attention through attention practices.
Anders Ljungdahl, Post.doc, DPU, AU
- Family structure and mental child health
Mette Verner, Professor MSO, Trygfonden's Centre for Child Research, AU, KORA
- Teacher involvement and children's mental health
Karen Wistoft, Associate Professor, DPU, AU
- Family and institutional stress and mental child health
Ole Henrik Hansen, Assistant Professor, DPU, AU

10.30 - 10.45 GOOD COFFEE

10.45 - 12.15 INTERVENTION

- Your Move: The Effect of Chess on Math Test Scores
Michael Rosholm, Professor, Director Trygfonden's Centre for Child Research, AU, and Camilla Gumedde, Executive Director, Trygfonden's Centre for Child Research, AU
- Absence from school project
Mikael Thastum, Professor, Department of Psychology and Behavioral Science, AU
- How can technology support children's well-being?
Kaj Grønbaek, Professor, Department of Computer Science, AU
- Can we monitor ADHD behavior objectively and help children with these problems with technology
Tobias Sonne, MSc ICT Product Development, PhD Student, Department of Computer Science, AU
- A systematic approach to support of children's mental well- being
Carsten Obel, Professor, Department of Public Health, AU

12.15 - 13.15 LUNCH

13.15 - 14.15 KEYNOTE

Family Relationship Influences on Children's Psychopathology: Revisiting the Developmental Interface between Nature and Nurture

Gordon Harrold, Professor, Institute of Psychological Medicine and Clinical Neurosciences Cardiff University School of Medicine

14.15- Social beers and wine