

Research Centre for Patient Involvement

Aarhus University & Central Denmark Region
Aarhus Universitet & Region Midtjylland
<https://ph.au.dk/center-for-forskning-i-patientinvolvering/>
Twitter @ResCenPI

Center for Forskning i Patientinvolvering

1st Symposium and opening
Research Centre for Patient Involvement
Wednesday 29th January 2020 from 14.00-17.00

Location Aarhus University Hospital, Aarhus (DK)
Auditorium B, G206-142
The University invites to a reception afterwards

- 14.00-14.50 Inaugural Lecture – Aarhus University:
Decision Scientist, Patient & Professional: Making Health Decisions Better Together
- Presentation by Professor Ole Bækgaard Nielsen, Head of Department of Public Health, Aarhus University
 - Professor Hilary Louise Bekker, Lead of the Research Centre for Patient Involvement (DK) and Chair in Medical Decision Making, University of Leeds (UK).
- 14.50-15.00 Why Patient Involvement Interventions are prioritised by Central Denmark Region.
- Chief Nursing Officer Inge Pia Christensen, Aarhus University Hospital; Chair of Steering Committee for the Research Centre for Patient Involvement
- 15.00-15.10 Why Patient Involvement Intervention Research is prioritised by the University.
- Professor Ole Bækgaard Nielsen, Head of Department of Public Health, Aarhus University
- 15.10-15.20 The Research Centre for Patient Involvement (ReCePI): vision and strategy.
- Deputy Lead ReCePI, Lotte Ørneborg Rodkjær, Research Centre for Patient Involvement
- Break
- 15.40-16.20 Insights into research projects from ResCenPI members.
- 16.20-17.00 How collaboration with patients as partners leads to more robust research and better health care.
- Patient representative and researcher, Maarten de Wit, Netherlands
 - Patient representative, Kristian Ahm Hansen, Denmark

Reception in front of the Auditorium hosted by Professor Ole Bækgaard Nielsen; Head of the Department of Public Health, Aarhus University.

Please forward this invitation to interested stakeholders.