

Danish Diabetes Academy

Diabetes and the Brain

11 May 2016

Radisson Blu Scandinavia Hotel,
Margrethepladsen 1, Aarhus

Danish Diabetes Academy
Funded by the Novo Nordisk Foundation

Programme

9:30 – 10:00	Coffee and rolls
10:00 – 10:10	Welcome and introduction Jan Frystyk, Professor, DMSc & Dorte Møller Jensen, Assistant Professor, Consultant
10:10 – 10:45	“Diabetes, cognition and dementia” Jørgen Rungby, Professor, Chief Physician, Gentofte Hospital, Denmark
10:45 – 11:00	Selected abstract 1 TBA
11:00 – 11:35	“CNS-dependent regulation of glucose metabolism” Johan Ruud, PhD, Max Planck Institute for Metabolism Research, Germany
11:35 – 11:50	Selected abstract 2 TBA
11:50 – 12:10	Coffee Break & Networking
12:10 – 12:45	“What does insulin in the brain?” Manfred Hallschmid, Professor, PhD, Department of Medical Psychology and Behavioural Neurobiology, University of Tübingen
12:45 – 13:45	Lunch & Networking

Programme

13:45 - 14:20	“The many faces of insulin-like peptide signaling in the brain” Ignacio Torres-Aleman, Professor, Group Leader CSIC, Madrid, Spain
14:20 - 14:55	“GLP-1 receptor agonists and Alzheimer” Christian Hölscher, Professor, PhD, Lancaster University, Lancaster, UK
14:55 - 15:15	Coffee break & Networking
15:15 - 15:30	Selected abstract 3 TBA
15:30 - 16:05	“Diabetes and depression - Clinical Evidence” Sten Lund, Consultant, DMSc, Dept. of Endocrinology and Internal Medicine, Aarhus University Hospital, Denmark
16:05 - 16:15	Break
16:15 - 16:50	“Depression in diabetes - Experimental evidence” Gregers Wegener, Professor, DMSc, Aarhus University, Denmark
16:50 - 17:25	“Cognitive function in offspring of women with type 1 diabetes and gestational diabetes mellitus” Tine D. Clausen, Consultant, Associate Professor, PhD, Dept. of Gynecology and Obstetrics, Nordsjaellands Hospital, Hilleroed, Denmark
17:25 - 17:35	Meeting closure Jan Frystyk & Dorte Møller Jensen