

Invitation PhD defence

Mille Møller Thastum, MSc, psychologist
defends her dissertation

Early intervention for impairing post-concussion symptoms

Friday 22 March 2019, 14.00-16.00

at The Lakeside Lecture Theatres (Søauditorierne), Bartholin Allé 3, Aarhus University, build. 1252/room 310 (Jeppe Vontillius).

The defence is open to the public and will be conducted in English. Following the defence,
The Research Clinic for Functional Disorders hosts an informal reception.

Assessment committee

Noah Silverberg, Clinical assoc. prof., MD, Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation Faculty of Medicine University of British Columbia, Canada
Nigel King, Dr., PhD, Consultant clinical neuropsychologist., Department of Clinical Neuropsychology, the Community Head Injury Service, Aylesbury / University of Oxford, UK
Per Hove Thomsen (chairman and moderator of the defence). Prof., Department of Clinical Medicine, Psychiatric Hospital for Children and Adolescents, Aarhus, DK.

Supervisors

Andreas Schröder, Assoc. prof., PhD, MD, The Research Clinic for Functional Disorders & Psychosomatics, Aarhus University Hospital, DK
Charlotte Ulrikka Rask, Prof., MD, PhD, Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Centre, Aarhus University Hospital, DK
Per Fink, Professor, DMSc., PhD, The Research Clinic for Functional Disorders & Psychosomatics, Aarhus University Hospital, DK.

Research symposium in connection with the PhD defence:

Persistent symptoms after mild traumatic brain injury (mTBI): Mechanisms and Management

Jeppe Vontillius Auditorium, address as above.

| | |
|-------------|---|
| 10.00-10:10 | Welcome /Andreas Schröder, MD, PhD, Aarhus University, Denmark |
| 10:10-10:40 | Cogniphobia in mTBI: Does the fear-avoidance model explain persistent post-concussion symptoms? /Noah D. Silverberg, Clinical Assoc. prof., University of British Columbia, Canada |
| 10:40-11:10 | What's going on in the brain after concussion? - a diffusion MRI perspective /Erhard Næss-Schmidt, PhD, Aarhus University |
| 11:10-11:40 | Psychological treatment of prolonged post-concussion symptoms – does it work? /Nigel King, Dr., PhD, University of Oxford, United Kingdom |
| 11:40-12:00 | Discussion |